REDOUTE BOTANICALS

Pierre-Joseph Redouté (July 10, 1759 - June 20, 1840), was a French painter and botanist, known for his paintings of the roses, lilies and other flowers at Malmaison. Redouté was born in Saint-Hubert, Luxembourg, which is now part of Belgium. He was an official court artist of Queen Marie Antoinette, and he continued painting through the French Revolution and Reign of Terror. Redouté survived the turbulent political upheaval to gain international recognition for his precise renderings of plants which remain as fresh in the early 21st century as when first painted. He is thought to be the greatest botanical painter of all time.
