PRECIOUS RECREATIONS

Majolica Tile

The Church of San Donato, Italy c.1615

There is a little building in the Abruzzi mountains of Italy close to the town of Castelli that is the majolica equal to the Sistine Chapel, the building is the church of San Donato. These magnificent & unique tiles, 810 in all, depicting coats of arms, heraldic emblems, male & female images, plants, animals & sacred images form the ceiling of the church and are dated 1615-16. We are proud to replicate this unique & priceless Renaissance art form. To do justice to this magnificent artwork we have created a tile that mimics masonry that is hundreds of years old. Each tile is made by hand, dated and carries the E seal of our company.

The Life of Christ

Giotto di Bondone c. 1302-5

The frescoes in the Arena Chapel in Padua are among the most celebrated works in the history of art. Giotto's work was a source of inspiration and instruction for generations of painters; it was studied and absorbed by Masaccio, Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael, artists whose own work was to be of such fundamental importance for the history of European art.

a 'NEW' 500 year old floor

PLEASE NOTE ALTHOUGH THIS IS CREATED ON A FLOOR - IT IS MEANT FOR A WALL!!

16 x 12" hand-made tiles make up an astonishingly authentic facsimile 4' x 4' fresco. Taken from a 15th century tile image this looks totally like it has been in the wall/floor for 500 years! Other tile images are available for this process - www.greatforgeries.com and then go to tiles on the right side 'Themes' menu for imagery.
